2025 LENTEN MISSION

with the

REV. HOWARD THORNTON

FRIDAY, MARCH 21 at 7:00 p.m.

SATURDAY, MARCH 22 at 7.00 p.m.

SUNDAY, MARCH 23 at 10.30 a.m.

In a chaotic, ever-changing, unstable, anxiety producing world, what are the fixed points by which to navigate life? St. Paul writes,

“So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.” ( 1 Cor.13.13)

Howard Thornton grew up in the small town of Bowness, Alberta (now part of Calgary). He studied Broadcasting at SAIT and for more than 25 years was a news, weather and current affairs presenter for CBC Television in Saskatchewan. Howard did graduate studies at Canadian Theological Seminary in Regina, and the University of Oxford. He served as university chaplain, as well as vicar of two parishes in the UK, and is recently retired parish priest of St. Michael and All Angels, in Canmore, and St. George's in the Pines, Banff. Alberta. Howard and his wife Carol have five children and three grand-children.
